

KINROSS HIGH STREET STORY TRAIL

Explore history, stories and memories of shops and shopping in Kinross with our story trail! Then pick up a postcard from participating shops and send us your stories, and your hopes for the future of our High Street.

Scan to hear Kinross-shire Reminiscence Group members talking about the shops on the corner of Swansacre.

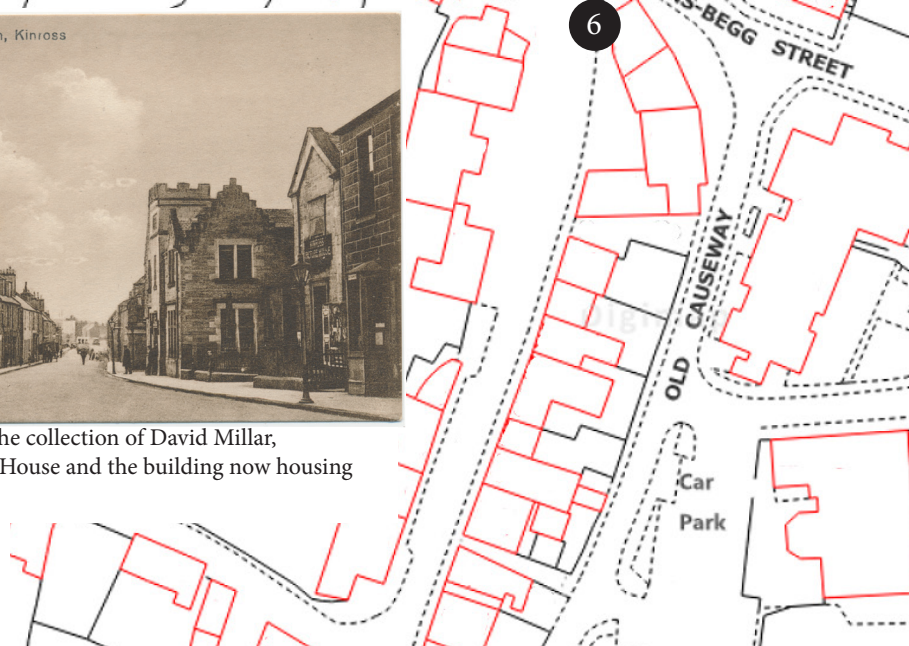

A postcard post-dated 1914 from the collection of David Millar, showing Kinross High Street looking South to the clock tower.

Scan to hear Kinross-shire Reminiscence Group members talking about the stationer and printer on Kinross High Street.

A postcard c.1930 from the collection of David Millar, showing Kinross Picture House and the building now housing Unorthodox Roasters.

KINROSS HIGH STREET STORY TRAIL

1 Green's:-

1. What fruit was the headline in an advert in the Kinross Advertiser in 1936?
2. Which member of staff appears in both photographs?
3. What item appears on the 1866 Bill to confirm payment has been made?

2 Sands:-

4. What was collected from the train station for Mr. Sands?
5. How much did Mr. Montgomery spend at this store in 1906?
6. Among the things this store sold in 1923 were "all kinds of ----- ----"

3 Reminiscence Cafe:-

7. How many Butchers shops have there been here?
8. Who would deliver orders locally?
9. What links a pet shop and an oak tree?

4 Morgans:-

10. What did Ann Gallagher sell?
11. Who ran the sweetie shop?
12. What are Permalette, Jamel & Eugene?
13. How old is this property?

5 Kilt Shop:-

14. What kind of postcards did this shop advertise for sale?
15. What was once in a niche at the back of the shop?
16. What was Kinross full of at this time?
17. Stillies, had two shop assistants with the same Christian name, what was it?

6 Mandy's:-

18. Where would you go to buy your bicycle or have it repaired?
19. In 1823 what was the name of the Inn here?
20. Where would you buy a Party Dress at?

7 Bailies:-

21. What did Hart's sell to prepare for the winter?
22. Which football team did the owner of this shop play for?
23. What was the name of the Tearoom?
24. Who was the Manager of Alloa Co-op Drapers?

8 Loch Leven Laundry:-

25. What discount would you get in the Sale, for warm lined boots?
26. Where would you go to buy your School Uniform?
27. Who owned the plot 200 years ago?

Trail answers available at participating shops.

Members of Kinross-shire Reminiscence Group have shared, discussed, researched and recorded stories, facts and images over the last few months to create this High Street Story Trail. Many thanks to Kinross (Marshall) Museum. Don't forget to collect a postcard and return it to the Group (postbox at the Kinross Centre) with your feedback!